Duty to take reasonable care not to make a Misrepresentation

Duty to take reasonable care not to make a Misrepresentation (for Section 1: Loss of or damage to your vessel and Section 3: Personal accident of the Policy only)

When applying for this Policy

You must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us. This responsibility applies until We issue You with a Policy for the first time or agree to renew, extend, vary/change, or reinstate Your Policy.

You must answer Our questions honestly, accurately and to the best of Your knowledge. A misrepresentation includes a statement that is false, partially false, or which does not fairly reflect the truth. It is not a misrepresentation if You do not answer a question or if Your answer is obviously incomplete or irrelevant to the question asked.

The responsibility to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation applies to everyone who will be insured under the policy. If You are answering questions on behalf of anyone, We will treat Your answers or representations as theirs.

Whether or not You have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation is to be determined having regard to all relevant circumstances, including the type of insurance, who it is intended to be sold to, whether You are represented by a broker, Your particular characteristics and circumstances We are aware of.

If You do not meet the above Duty, We may reject or not fully pay Your claim and/or cancel Your Policy. If the misrepresentation was deliberate or reckless, this is an act of fraud, and We may treat Your Policy as if it never existed.

When you renew Your Policy

You must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us. This responsibility applies until We renew Your Policy so if anything changes prior to the renewal date of Your Policy You need to tell Us.

You must answer any of Our additional questions honestly, accurately and to the best of Your knowledge. Also, you must review Your responses to previous questions, replayed in the Renewal Invitation document, and advise Us immediately if any information is inaccurate or has changed. Amendments may impact the terms of this renewal offer.

Your Duty of Disclosure – For Section 2: Legal Liability of this Policy

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (the Act), You have a Duty of Disclosure. The Act requires that before a policy is entered into, You must give Us certain information We need to decide whether to insure You and anyone else to be Insured under the Policy, and on what terms. Your Duty of Disclosure is different, depending on whether this is a new Policy or not.

New business

Where You are entering into this Policy for the first time (that is, it is new business and is not being renewed, varied, extended or reinstated) You must tell Us everything You know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell Us, in answer to the specific questions We ask. When answering Our questions You must be honest.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You

Who needs to tell Us

It is important that You understand You are answering Our questions in this way for Yourself and anyone else whom You want to be covered by the Policy.

If You do not tell Us

If You do not answer Our questions in this way, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel the Policy. If Your non-disclosure is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the Policy as if it never existed.

Renewals, variations, extensions and reinstatements

Once Your Policy is entered into and is no longer new business then Your duty to Us changes. You are required before You renew, vary, extend or reinstate Your Policy, to tell Us everything You know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is a matter that is relevant to Our decision whether to insure You, and anyone else to be Insured under the Policy, and if so, on what terms.

You have this duty until We agree to renew Your Policy.

You do not have to tell Us about any matter

- that diminishes the risk
- that is of common knowledge
- that We know or should know in the ordinary course of Our business as an insurer, or
- which We indicate We do not want to know.

If You do not tell Us

If You do not comply with Your Duty of Disclosure We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or cancel Your Policy. If Your non-disclosure is fraudulent We may treat this Policy as never having existed.
